THE RULES OF ENTRY

- 1 Any schoolgoing child in South Africa may participate in Santam's Child Art Competition.
- 2 Artwork MUST NOT be larger than A2 format (594 mm x 420 mm).
- 3 Colour or black-and-white drawings, etchings, paintings and silk-screens will be accepted.
- 4 NO sculptures, needlework or three-dimensional work will be accepted.
- 5 Entries may only be on paper or canvas and MAY NOT BE FOLDED, ROLLED UP OR MOUNTED.
- 6 Do not paste or write anything on the front of the artwork.
- 7 No artwork will be returned to parents, educators or entrants under any circumstances.
- 8 By submitting the artwork, the learner/guardian/representative ("the Applicant") hereby agrees that ownership of the artwork will vest in Santam. The Applicant furthermore understands and acknowledges that the submitted artwork may be sold to the public by Santam to fund educator development (arts and culture) or art classes throughout the country for children from previously disadvantaged communities. Santam may furthermore authorise any third party to use the respective artwork in any manner Santam deems appropriate. The Applicant or any other party shall have no claim whatsoever to the right or title of the submitted artwork. As stated above, the ownership of any artwork submitted shall strictly vest in Santam Limited.
- 9 As selected works in the category 15 years and older may also be needed for examinations, we recommend that Grade 12 learners have their work photographed prior to entry.

Look up at the night sky. Close your eyes. Make a wish. What is it you wish for? A fluffy pet? Good marks in school? A new toy? A holiday with your family? Create an artwork to show us.

Your masterpiece could win your school R3 000 and be featured in Santam's 2022 Child Art Calendar. You can paint, draw or use any method you like to express yourself.

Entries close 30 June 2021. Please see the general rules of entry in this leaflet.

PRIZES

The school and art centre that produce the most selected artworks per age category will receive R3 000. All learners whose entries are selected will receive a medal and a certificate. Special awards will be given to schools or art centres whose learners participate for the first time and whose artworks are selected.

SELECTION PROCESS

- 1 Santam retains the right to exhibit, reproduce or use any work at its sole discretion.
- 2 Some selected works will be used in Santam's 2022 Child Art Calendar.
- 3 Each year Santam selects independent judges to adjudicate the work. Their decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- 4 All participating schools and art centres will be advised of the results of the adjudication.
- 5 Details of the winners and their artworks may be given to the media.

HISTORY

Santam's Child Art Project started in 1963 to give children an opportunity to express and present their thoughts and ideas creatively. In an active effort to fulfil the need for art education in disadvantaged communities, Santam has joined forces with the Ibhabhathane Project (www.pcac.co.za) to present arts and culture teacher workshops. We also offer free art classes to children from these communities.
