

SANTAM GROUP COMPLIANCE POLICY

Prepared by

HEAD: COMPLIANCE CONTROL FUNCTION

1 November 2021

SANTAM GROUP COMPLIANCE POLICY

1. Purpose of Document

- 1.1 The Santam Board has approved the Santam Group Governance Policy in November 2012 which is aimed at providing the minimum requirements that must be adhered to in order to ensure that appropriate governance structures are in place thereby reducing risks to the Santam Group. Included in the Group Governance Policy, entities within the Santam Group are required to have appropriate compliance governance structures in place to reduce the risk of non-compliance with ethical, legal, regulatory, internal policy and industry code requirements.
- 1.2 To this end, this document is specifically aimed at providing the high level criteria (“tight principles”) that must be adhered to across the Santam Group in respect of the management of the compliance risks which include penalties that may be imposed, sanctions that may be imposed against key personnel, institution of third party legal action due to non-compliance and industry sanctions due to non-compliance with industry codes.
- 1.3 This document is also aimed at aligning entities within the Santam Group with the Sanlam Group Compliance Policy.

2. Santam Group and Santam Limited Compliance Policy Statement and Philosophy

- 2.1 The Santam Board is accountable and responsible for ensuring that the Santam Group complies with its relevant legal, regulatory and ethical, internal policy and industry code obligations and that compliance risks within the Group are appropriately managed.
- 2.2 This Group Compliance Policy has been developed to ensure adequate oversight and clear accountability of the Santam Group compliance activities that are performed within the Santam Group.
- 2.3 The Santam Group and Santam Limited are committed to complying with all compliance obligations which includes compliance with all legal, regulatory, ethical and internal policy obligations and industry codes applicable to the Santam Group.
- 2.4 The Santam Board upholds the core values of integrity, fair dealing and accountability to all stakeholders and as such regards compliance with these obligations and relevant codes as an imperative to its business and will therefore not tolerate any non-compliance. All employees and entities within the Santam Group are obliged to comply with legal, regulatory, ethical and internal policy obligations and industry codes applicable to the Santam Group.

3. Application/Scope

- 3.1 The Policy applies to: -
 - 3.1.1 Any entity within the Santam Group, in possession of its own short-term, long-term insurance license and/or Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services issued in terms of the short-term insurance legislation, long-term insurance legislation and /or Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act respectively.

- 3.1.2 Any entity within the Santam Group that is required to have a compliance monitoring responsibility in place which addresses compliance risks in terms of legislation other than those listed in clause 3.1.1 above.
- 3.1.3 Any entity within the Santam Group that is subject to foreign jurisdictions and regulatory authorities. Where the foreign jurisdictions places more stringent requirements on the entity, the more stringent requirements will apply.
- 3.2 Entities within the Santam Group must align its own Compliance Policy with the Santam Group Compliance Policy. The principles and requirements contained within this document will apply and should be adopted. Where full adoption is not possible, an explanation needs to be provided to the Head of the Santam Group Compliance Function.
- 3.3 Compliance with the “tight” principles that need to be addressed varies according to the ownership structure and regulatory status of businesses within the Santam Group. Santam holds and/or manages interests in various entities.
- 3.4 Santam Group standards and policies are applicable in areas defined as ‘tight’. The scope and the application of these areas of ‘tight’ governance are as set from time to time by the Group CEO in consultation with Santam Exco and should be applied in line with the Santam Group Governance Policy as approved by the Board. Refer to paragraphs 6 and 7 of the Santam Group’s Governance Policy on the extent to which entities within the Group are to apply governance principles.
- 3.5 The Compliance Function is regarded as a control function for the purposes of the Prudential Standards on Outsourcing as contemplated under the Insurance Act of 2017 and where such function or compliance service or the Head of the Function is outsourced then such outsourcing must comply with the Santam Group Outsource Policy and the aforementioned Standards in order to address the Outsourcing Risk.

4. Definitions

Below is a summary of the most important definitions used throughout the policy:

- 4.1 The Board – refers to the relevant legal entity’s board for the different businesses within the Santam Group unless specifically indicated that a requirement applies to the Santam Limited Board.
- 4.2 Businesses or “the business”/entity (entities) refer to either statutory entities in their own right with separate boards and governance structures (e.g. the Underwriting Managers) and/or business divisions with only a Manco/Exco (e.g. Risk Services, Broker Distribution, Marketing, etc.).
- 4.3 Compliance Function – An independent function that identifies, assesses, advises on, monitors and reports on the compliance risk in the entity as contemplated in the Insurance Act 2017 and the standards issued thereunder.
- 4.4 Compliance Risk- Compliance risk is the risk of damage to the entity’s business model or objectives, reputation and financial soundness arising from non-compliance with legal, regulatory, ethical, internal policy and industry code obligations. Compliance risk not includes finances, civil claims, loss of license to operate, criminal sanctions on officers, but also to reputational damage.

- 4.5 Control function - the control function as defined in the Insurance Act of 2017 read with the relevant standards issued thereunder.
- 4.6 Outsourcing risk is the risk of loss (financial or otherwise) to the company as a result of the existence of an outsourcing arrangement. Outsourcing risk can be seen as a potentially significant source of reputational or operational risk. The sub-categories of outsourcing risk are explained in Appendix C of the Outsourcing Policy.
- 4.7 Santam Group – refers to Santam, and any entity in which Santam Limited (“Santam”) holds the majority of voting rights and has sole control over such rights by way of agreement, has control of the board of such entity, the right to appoint the majority of directors to the board of such an entity or any entity which Santam regards as strategic.
- 4.8 Santam Group Compliance Function – refers to the Santam Compliance Control Function contemplated under the Insurance Act of 2017 read with the relevant standards issued thereunder.

5. Santam Group “Tight” principles for the management of Compliance Risks

- 5.1 The Santam Group Compliance Policy sets out the overall “tight” principles which entities within the Santam Group must comply with and are categorised as follows:

- 5.1.1 Governance

The Board of Directors is ultimately accountable for managing compliance risks. The Executive Management is ultimately responsible for establishing, maintaining and operating an effective framework of business controls, risk management and corporate governance. Any Governance structure must ensure that the management of compliance risk is adequately addressed.

- 5.1.2 Compliance Statement

The Compliance Policy must be communicated to the employees of the entity as it sets out the companies approach to management of compliance risk. It must therefore be widely distributed in order to foster a compliance culture.

- 5.1.3 Responsibilities of Management

Management’s responsibility must be clearly understood in respect of managing compliance risk.

Management retains the primary role of management and other risk-taking functions to ensure that the Compliance requirements are met.

Management must ensure that there is a clear distinction between the role of individuals in the compliance function as assurance providers (2nd line) and the roles of management and other risk-taking functions (1st line) is reflected in the naming protocols applied in respect of the respective job titles and job descriptions used by the Santam Group.

Management must obtain the advice and inputs of the compliance function at the outset in the development of any new products, new acquisitions or -initiatives considered by the entity or any other significant organisational developments involving the entity in order to facilitate the early identification of compliance risks.

5.1.4 Establishment of a compliance function

A formal Compliance Function must be established which is responsible for identifying, assessing, advising on, monitoring and reporting on the Compliance Risk in the entity and which is aligned with the entity's risk management framework.

5.1.5 Status and Authority of the Compliance Function

The Compliance function must be given the appropriate status and authority within the entity. The Board and Executive Management must therefore formally endorse the Compliance Policy and Function.

5.1.6 Independence

The Compliance Function must be sufficiently independent of business activities in order to discharge its responsibilities objectively.

5.1.7 Roles and responsibilities of the Compliance Function

The Compliance Function is responsible for assisting, the Board, Executive Management in discharging their responsibility to comply with applicable legal, regulatory, ethical, internal policy requirements and industry code obligations by providing compliance services.

5.1.8 Role and appointment of the Head of the Compliance Function

The Board is responsible for ensuring that the Head of Compliance Function is appointed who is responsible for the day-to-day management of the compliance function including identifying and assessing the regulatory requirements, designing and implementing controls to minimise compliance risk, monitoring the effectiveness of the compliance systems, reporting to management and the regulators, providing advice, guidance, training and record-keeping and as set out under the Insurance Act of 2017 and the standards issued thereunder.

5.1.9 Fit and properness

Compliance staff must have the necessary qualifications, experience and personal qualities to carry out their duties effectively and must meet the fit and proper requirements as determined by the Regulator from time to time.

5.1.10 Resources

The Compliance Function must have unfettered access to the various resources which includes access to all staff, committees, and committee reports which are required to effectively fulfil its roles and responsibilities. The Compliance Function should be appropriately staffed and have sufficient capacity in line with the entity's nature, scale and complexity of respective regulatory and compliance risks.

5.1.11 Appointment and termination of the Head of the Compliance Function

Appropriate procedures must be in place which addresses the appointment and termination of appointment of the Head of the Compliance Function. The Head of the Group Compliance Function needs to review the appointment of compliance officers of Category 1 and 2 entities as referred to in the Santam Group Governance Policy, to ensure that Group requirements will be met and synergy achieved across the Group.

5.1.12 Culture and behaviour

An appropriate ethical behaviour must be promoted throughout the entity. The compliance functions assist management in the promotion of ethical behaviour and must therefore promote recognition of compliance risk identification, awareness, monitoring and reporting as part of employees' daily activities.

5.1.13 Independent Review

The compliance function must undergo independent review every three years in order to ensure that it is operating effectively and as intended.

5.1.14 Reporting lines to the Santam Group Compliance Office and to Regulators

In order to manage the compliance risks across the Santam Group, Executive Management and/or Head of Compliance of the entities must ensure that the Santam Group Compliance Function is formally consulted prior to the submission of any report of non-compliance to any regulator.

The Head of the Compliance Function, (the Compliance Officer, or the manager responsible for the management of the compliance risks, where such Head or Compliance Officer does not exist) must submit compliance reports to Santam Head Group Compliance prior to submission to the respective Boards for sign-off and comment.

- 5.2 The Santam Group Executive Committee and the Executive Committees of the applicable entities must determine whether it is appropriate to outsource the Compliance Function or any compliance service for which the Compliance Function is responsible in respect of their own environment. Where such outsourcing is undertaken, the requirements of the Santam Group Outsource Policy and standards relating to outsourcing as contemplated under the Insurance Act of 2017 must be complied with in order to address outsourcing risks.

6. Compliance Management and Risk Management

The Santam Group Compliance Function (which includes the Santam Limited) forms part of the overall enterprise risk management function and framework to address all material risks holistically facing the entity. To this end, Santam Group Compliance Function adopts the similar methodology in respect of the identification, assessment and monitoring of risks.

7. Compliance Structure for Santam Group

- 7.1 The Santam Board has delegated the management of compliance risks to the Head of the Santam Group Compliance Function. The Santam Group Compliance Function is headed by the Head the Group Compliance Function and who also acts as the Santam Group Compliance Officer. The Head of Group Compliance (and Group Compliance Officer) reports to the Santam Risk Committee and is supported by relevant compliance staff as determined from time to time.

Management is responsible for ensuring that appropriate processes are in place to reduce the risk of non-compliance with policies, regulatory obligations and industry codes.

- 7.2 The Compliance Function reports administratively to the Head of the Business Integrity and Compliance Function but formally to the Santam Risk Committee. The Head of the Group Compliance Function has direct access and a direct reporting line to the Risk Committee.
- 7.3 Compliance officers throughout the Santam Group, where Santam has majority control/shareholding, have a dual reporting line to their respective boards and management teams and also to the Santam Group Compliance function.

8. Independence

The Santam Group Compliance Function operates independently from business operations in order to ensure that it discharges its responsibility in an objective manner. Where a conflict of interest arises between business and the Compliance Function in the discharge of the compliance function's responsibilities, the Head of Compliance shall refer such conflict to the Executive Head of the relevant business unit for resolution and where resolution is not possible, it shall be referred to the Chairperson of the Risk Committee after consultation with the Head of Risk Management, Executive Head of Corporate Services and Chief Executive.

9. Roles and Responsibilities of the Compliance Function

9.1 The Santam Group Compliance Function is responsible for:

- 9.1.1 Identification and assessment of compliance obligations and risks across the group.
- 9.1.2 Development and implementation of policies, procedures and controls to meet ethical, legal, regulatory, internal policy and industry codes requirements across the group.
- 9.1.3 The formulation of Group Compliance Principles and Standards for recommendation and approval by the Santam Group Executive and which will be applied across the Santam Group.
- 9.1.4 Monitoring adherence to the Group Compliance Principles and Standards within the Santam Group and to report on the status thereof to the Santam Group Executive.
- 9.1.5 Facilitating the resolution of any inconsistent compliance practices or conflicts by entities within the Santam Group.
- 9.1.6 Establishing and maintaining an integrated view of Santam Group Compliance Risk and compliance management activities in order to assess the extent thereof and provide assurance on its adequacy to the Board.
- 9.1.7 Initiating and co-ordinating generic compliance projects in respect of Compliance requirements set by legislation from time-to-time which applies across the group.
- 9.1.8 Monitoring the effectiveness of the compliance systems and process based on a formal monitoring plan. Adopting a risk-based approach to monitoring compliance. The monitoring plan must be approved by the board.
- 9.1.9 Reporting to Santam Executive Management and the Board compliance status and incidence of non-compliance on a quarterly basis.
- 9.1.10 Communicating, advising, and providing guidance and training in respect of regulatory and all compliance-related matters.
- 9.1.11 Act as the liaison between the entity and the regulator.

9.2 The Head of the Compliance Function is responsible for:

- 9.2.1 Designing the compliance framework, including the Compliance Policy.

- 9.2.2 Establishing, implementing and maintaining a risk-based compliance plan.
- 9.2.3 Designing and maintaining a consistent methodology and processes to be followed by the Compliance Function and Santam Group, thereby ensuring a consistent application throughout the organisation thereby ensuring the integrity of the methodology and processes.
- 9.2.4 Independently monitoring and reporting to Executive Management and the Board on the effectiveness of the Compliance Functions within the Group.
- 9.2.5 Developing and implementing systems for sourcing information, such as complaints, whistleblowing, media reports, feedback from employees with clients on a day to day basis, participation in industry groups.
- 9.2.6 Recruiting appropriate staff for the Compliance Function who meets the fit and proper requirements.
- 9.2.7 Facilitating a compliance culture.
- 9.2.8 Ensuring that the Policy is communicated to all employees.

10. Specific Reporting Requirements
