

Santammer News

Kick off

We kicked off the year with a steady pace before shifting gears as we fast approach the halfway mark of the year. Our first newsletter for the year 2024, weaves articles that tell the Santam story of what we strive to achieve in delivering experiences aligned to the fast-changing needs and behaviours of our clients.

Read more

Value of insuring with Santam

Partnering with the right insurer is key in ensuring that you receive value for money especially in these tough economic times. In line with this, there are 3 key questions that one must ask themselves before choosing the right short-term insurance provider.

Read more

Santam launches Dynamic Detection mobile app

Santam is excited to announce the introduction of the Dynamic Damage Detection mobile application as it aims to deliver exceptional experiences to clients through innovative solutions.

Read more

Do you have enough insurance cover?

You have insurance, check, but is it enough? We understand that it is hard to keep up with all your various policies and what they cover you for, so here is a checklist that will nudge you in the right direction.

Read more

Solar risk

The frequent loadshedding has resulted in around 1 in 3 consumers investing in electronic equipment to boost their power supply. If you have had solar installation, or are considering installing solar panels, here is some vital information to consider.

Read more

Maintaining your profile has never been easier

Accessing your policy information is now easier with the use of our self-service options which enable you to ensure that your information is accurate.

Read more

Register and track your claims within minutes

Did you know that you can register and track your claims using the Santam Client App. Use the QR codes to download and access the client app.

Read more

Treating our customers fairly with NFO

Santam's commitment to treating customers fairly is now easier with the merge of the four separate financial sector ombud schemes into a single point of contact from the 1st of March.

Read more

A decade of building resilient communities

Over the last ten years, Santam has proactively partnered with municipalities across South Africa through our flagship programme that has enhanced resilience of communities.

Read more

The power of positive stories

Santam's flagship programme, Partnership for Risk and Resilience, has built societal resilience by collaborating and partnering with stakeholders, plugging into communities and proactively implementing risk measures.

Read more

PARTNERSHIP FOR RISK AND RESILIENCE (P4RR)

A DECADE OF BUILDING RESILIENT COMMUNITIES

Read more

Ten years celebrating female entrepreneurship

Santam, in association with Fairlady and Truelove, invites remarkable women entrepreneurs to showcase their businesses for the annual Santam Women of the Future Awards.

Read more

Proud sponsor at the 2024 Metro FM Awards

You take pride in your firsts, and we take pride in safeguarding it. We understand the value of your firsts and with that we are the proud sponsor of the 2024 Metro FM Music Awards Best New Artist category.

Read more

